

Date: 09th April 2024

Dear Sir/Madam

International Legal Conference 2024
Theme: "The Legal Dimensions of Global Trade@2047"
Saturday, 20th April 2024
09.00 am to 6.00 pm
Venue: Hall No-5; Vigyan Bhawan, New Delhi, 110011

Greetings from SEPC!!

Services Export Promotion Council (SEPC), established by the Ministry of Commerce & Industries, Government of India, serves as a vital entity dedicated to advancing service exports. SEPC has been instrumental in facilitating the export of services including manufacturing services, aligning with the government's vision of enhancing India's service sector globally. Mandated to enhance the export competitiveness of all services sectors, SEPC emphasizes the strategic significance of sectors like the legal industry in our nation's economic framework.

In line with its mission, the Services Export Promotion Council is organising the prestigious 'International Legal Conference 2024' on April 20th, 2024, at Vigyan Bhawan, New Delhi, 110011. We have invited eminent speakers from legal fraternity and experts from industry, Senior Officers from Ministry of Legal Affairs, Ministry of Commerce and Industry and Ministry of External Affairs.

The theme of the conference—"The Legal Dimensions of Global Trade@2047" is aligned to the Amrit Kaal mission of envisioning India@2047 with the mantra of "reform, perform and transform" all the sectors to make India a five-trillion-dollar economy. It embodies the essence of our collective vision, wherein we aspire to align the legal landscape with the broader contours of national progress and global relevance. Thus, the event transcends its immediate purpose for shaping the narrative of India's legal evolution, propelling it towards a future imbued with foresight and strategic direction. The focus area of discussions for the conference is as follows:

- I. Liberalization of India's Legal Sector
- II. Evolving Global Supply Chain for Legal Services
- III. Artificial Intelligence in Legal Practice
- IV. Role of FTA's in promoting Bilateral and International Trade
- V. Dispute Resolution- Negotiation, Mediation & Arbitration

This conference will be conducted under the esteemed guidance of Mr. Lalit Bhasin (Founding Chairman, SEPC), a distinguished luminary renowned for his expertise and profound contributions to the legal arena cutting across all the sectors.

We take this opportunity to kindly invite you to participate as a distinguished delegate. We believe that the Conference will be able to provide valuable insights and networking opportunities.

We kindly urge you to complete your registration today using the delegate registration link: <https://forms.gle/kMysh6RpDJkhWV8g6>

Pre-registration will enable us to organise your delegate badges and ease the entry in Vigyan Bhawan.

SESSION 2: EVOLVING GLOBAL SUPPLY CHAIN FOR LEGAL SERVICE

The corporate legal services sector is undergoing a gradual but noticeable transformation. Legal firms are recognizing the advantages of outsourcing crucial legal services in an increasingly interconnected world. India is becoming a popular choice for clients looking for legal processing outsourcing services, especially those from the US and Europe. Remarkable changes in the legal services sector have led to an increase in the number of clients from developing countries like China, Germany, and Japan. This shift may require law companies to expand their service offerings, embrace new technologies, and extend their reach to clients globally. This dynamic environment opens up opportunities for innovation, collaboration, and a more globalized approach to legal service outsourcing. Thus, the discussion in this session will focus on the global integration of Indian legal services, exploring how the industry is adapting to cater to clients in an increasingly borderless world.

SESSION 3: ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE IN

LEGAL PRACTICE

In the service sector, the term Artificial Intelligence (AI) has become more well known recently for several reasons. The legal industry has embraced AI technology to improve efficiency, streamline workflows, and to give legal practitioners better opportunities. This has resulted in a transformation of the legal sector. Although use of Artificial intelligence (AI) brings several benefits for the legal industry, its implementation possesses certain challenges, including data security and privacy. Because there are not any clear enforceable laws pertaining to govern the use of AI technologies in sectors, thus it is imperative that law firms in India and around the world address ethical practices when adopting AI technology. In order to prevent potential abuse of AI across industries, this session will address the ethical legal regulations that need to be implemented across the sectors.

SESSION 4: ROLE OF FTAs IN PROMOTING BILATERAL & INTERNATIONAL TRADE

Free trade agreements drive robust economic activity, foster job growth, and offer significant opportunities for both large and small businesses to thrive through enhanced trade and investment. Beyond tariff elimination, they tackle internal barriers that could hinder trade, stimulate investment, and expand access to diverse goods, services, technologies, and innovative methods. Additionally, these agreements facilitate regional economic integration and cultivate collaborative trade and investment strategies among partner nations. For Indian lawyers and law firms to efficiently serve the legal needs of enterprises involved in foreign transactions, capacity building and long-term strategy, this session will elaborate the importance of understanding the significance of Free Trade Agreements in both bilateral and international trade.

SESSION 5: DISPUTE RESOLUTION— NEGOTIATION, MEDIATION & ARBITRATION

When it comes to handling conflict and drafting contract in the service industry, arbitration, mediation and negotiation are useful instruments. The decision between arbitration and negotiation is influenced by various elements, including the type of dispute, the desired level of formality, the significance of confidentiality, and the parties' continuing commercial links. To handle all facets of their operations and disputes, many organizations in the service industry take a multifaceted approach, deliberately utilizing both negotiation and arbitration. Thus, discussion in the session will delve around Arbitration, Mediation and Negotiation options available to settle cross-border disputes, will Indian parties have the option of using a foreign arbitral seat and developing online dispute resolution for settling disputes.
