Sub: Invitation for “4th National Summit on Trade Finance for Inclusive Growth” at Hotel The Lalit, New Delhi on 08th June 2023 from 09:00 AM- 03:00 PM

Dear Sir/Madam,

Greetings from the SEPC!

As India assumes the G20 presidency, it has the opportunity to further the cause of mutually beneficial, rules-based international trade at a time when the world is facing a series of multiple and overlapping political and economic crises. More broadly, India should build consensus on the need to navigate a new era of multilateral trade that continues to contribute much-needed benefits of international trade.

Supply Chain Finance along with enabling platforms, such as Trade Receivables Discounting System (TreDs) in India are envisaged to be a viable solution to ease the financial value chain linked to the supply chain, especially for MSMEs. Supply Chain Finance also has the potential to embed the sustainability quotient in buyer-supplier relationships for offering a differentiated proposition to suppliers that meet Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) frameworks.

In this context, ASSOCHAM Department of Banking & Financial Services along with SEPC are organizing National Summit on Trade Finance for Inclusive Growth with an objective to analyze the issues and concerns in detail and to chart out a way forward in terms of suggestions on the requisite changes in regulations for gearing up to the needs of changing times.
